COMPLAINT FORM WITH INFORMATION SHEET AND HIPAA RELEASE

Information on Filing a Complaint

What are your rights?

You have a right to expect a professional standard of service and conduct from a licensed professional clinical counselor or a licensed professional counselor associate. If you believe a counselor has violated Kentucky statutes or regulations, you may send a written complaint to the Kentucky Board of Licensed Professional Counselors. As the body responsible for regulating the professional counseling profession and protecting the public in matters related to professional counseling, the Board will review your complaint and take appropriate action.

How does the complaint process work?

Written complaints signed by the person making the complaint (“Complainant”) on the DPL-LPC-011, Complaint Form, attached, and received in writing at the Board office will be acknowledged upon receipt, or at least no later than two (2) business days following receipt at the Board’s administrative office, by letter, or email, if applicable. Additionally, acknowledgment will be made in like manner in which the complaint was received. Notice of the complaint, along with a copy of the written complaint, will be sent to the licensee (“Respondent”) for their response. The Respondent has twenty (20) days from the date they receive notice of the complaint to file a response. Once the response is received, you will receive notice, along with a copy of the response, and you must reply within seven (7) days of receipt. The complaint, response, and any reply will be reviewed by the Board’s Complaint Screening Committee at the next scheduled board meeting. If no law appears to have been broken, you will receive notification from the Board that the complaint has been dismissed. If the Board believes a law may have been broken, the Board may order that an investigation take place. If the Board files a formal administrative complaint against a Respondent as a result of the investigation, an administrative hearing may be held. This formal hearing involves lawyers, a court reporter, a hearing officer and witnesses. If the Board finds that the Respondent has not met the prescribed standard of service and conduct, it has the authority to impose penalties ranging from suspension or loss of a license to an admonishment. A penalty may also be reached by an informal settlement agreement between the Board and the Respondent at any time during these proceedings.

PLEASE NOTE THE BOARD IS NOT STATUTORILY AUTHORIZED TO ACCEPT ANONYMOUS COMPLAINTS OR WITHHOLD YOUR NAME, AS A COMPLAINANT, FROM THE RESPONDENT.

What might I expect from filing a complaint?

The complaint process is a detailed and careful one, and you should expect some delay. In every case the Respondent will be informed that a complaint has been filed, the name of the complainant, and the disposition of the complaint. Not every complaint results in disciplinary action by the Board if the Respondent has not violated the laws governing the practice of professional counseling. If charges are filed, a hearing may be held similar to a court trial, and it is open to the public. You may be subpoenaed as a witness to provide testimony regarding the case. In this event the attorney assigned to the Board will assist you in preparing for the hearing. If the Board orders a specific sanction, the Respondent has the right to appeal to the Franklin Circuit Court, and a final decision may be delayed in the courts. While you may have an opinion regarding the process and outcome of processing your complaint, please remember that the decisions to dismiss or settle a case or propose disciplinary measures are solely the decision of the Board and may be subject to review by the courts.

If the Board files formal charges or takes formal action against a Respondent, most portions of the investigative file will become a “public record” which can be viewed by any individual who requests to do so. The record may include your written complaint, transcripts, or reports of interviews, letters, and other reports. All testimony and evidence admitted in a formal hearing have the status of public record as well. Client records obtained in the process of investigation usually can be protected from disclosure as public records.

Throughout the various stages of the complaint process, you will be kept informed. You will also be advised of the final outcome.

Release of Medical Records

If your complaint relates to services provided to you by a Respondent, the board investigator may contact you and request that you sign an Authorization for Release of Medical and Client Records. This involves health oversight activities and administrative proceedings of the Board and disclosure is permitted under 45 C.F.R. Section 164.512(a), (d), and (e), the regulations implementing the Health Insurance Portability Accountability Act (HIPAA).
